It's beautifully shot and as a Greek immigrant he brings an outsider's view (and love) of our city.

Antony Condoleon wins a double pass to opening and closing nights of the Gold Coast Film Festival plus a chance to mingle with VIP's and a double Take 5 film pass for five movies of his choice.

Antony's film will also screened at Glow, an event which will light up the Gold Coast's cultural heart at the Evandale Parklands precinct (behind the Arts Centre) on Saturday April 12.
