

Sweetness in prayer (Saint Theophan the Recluse)

When

people begin to be steadfastly united with God in prayer, they never want to be separated from Him.

Because the sweetness they taste through the Divine Presence is so great they never want to taste anything else.

» Saint Theophan the Recluse

Source: pemptousia.com