

Good from childhood (Saint Porphyrios of

It seems very difficult to become good, but in fact it's easy, provided you have good experiences when you're little.

As you grow up, you don't have to make great efforts, because you've got goodness within you, you live it.

You don't work at it, you experience it, it's your property which, if you're careful, you'll have with you for the rest of your life.

Sain Venerable Porphyrios of Kavsokalyvia

Source: pemptousia.com