The European Parliament's resolution on Turkey's progress report for 2009, which was approved Wednesday, constitutes a clear message to Ankara to immediately implement its obligations which concern the Republic of Cyprus. This was stated Thursday by Government Spokesman Stephanos Stephanou, noting that the EP's resolution is the most powerful one which Cyprus has achieved lately.

The resolution, he said, is one more political tool for the Greek Cypriot side in the struggle for the achievement of a solution in Cyprus that would end the Turkish occupation and reunify Cyprus and its people.

"The resolution underlines the need for Turkey's active support for the achievement of an overall settlement of the Cyprus problem. Basically, the European Parliament urges Turkey to contribute actively to the solution of the Cyprus problem, reviewing its Cyprus policy so far", he underlined. (περισσότερα...)
