

30 Μαΐου 2016

We'd avert our eyes (Saint John of Kronstadt)

Ξένες γλώσσες / In English

God sees what each of us has in our soul, what our heart is attached to for most of the course of our life. If the Lord had given us the ability to read the depths of the human heart, then we'd certainly turn away our eyes in horror at the host of sins and iniquities we'd see there.