I have lived away from my country for many years. I have travelled to many countries and continents. I have eaten at the world's best restaurants. But I have enjoyed the best meal of my life at Holy Mount Athos.

Farther D was archontaris and could not visit the Dionisiou monastery to see blessed Elder Charalambos, former Abbot of the monastery, as he would have wished. For my part, I intended to visit the monastery to meet with Fr. Theoklitos as well. Fr D asked me to do him a favor. He wanted me to write down some of the questions he had on a piece of paper and record Fr Charalambo's answers on the tape recorder. (περισσότερα...)
