Gabriel is the messenger of God's Word. His name means "God is my strength." He is bringing them to know the mystery of reincarnation of souls to be born and we instruct us all in terms of gifts and our spiritual mission in this world. He is the protector of children and takes care of the child in each soul of us, it is prevented from ever increasing, or is injured and needs love. He is helping us to awaken the child inside with words full of love and tenderness.

Hand of protection is always there to protect what is naturally and easily in November. In all religions, Gabriel is considered the most important divine messenger. He is tireless in transmitting the Word of God to those who will listen and we will respect the divine essence of themselves. He is known as the Ambassador and Humanity, Angel revelations, he who gives good news, justice and divine compassion. He is an Angel of Joy and Spirit of Truth.
