How Does God Fit in My Life?

Ορθοδοξία και Ορθοπραξία / Ορθόδοξη πίστη

Does this scenario sound familiar? Two friends meet up. One says to the other: 'How has your day been?' the other responds: 'you won't believe what kind of a day I've had.....' and he rattles on about what a busy day it has been, and describes the day's never-ending list of things, some of which were accomplished, others which were not.

My gut feeling is, that in that conversation there was not even the slightest mention of God as a part of that busy day. Think about the last time you talked with somebody else about the hectic day you've had. Am I right?
